

A Community Research Ethics Workshop:

Am I Being Ethical in my Treatment of Participants and Communities?

Presented by the Community Research Ethics Office

A workshop designed to:

- Increase researchers' capacity to develop and carry out ethical research
- Encourage and aid the ethical awareness of researchers by providing a forum for discussion
- Contribute to the integrity and quality of community research

Date: May 28th, 2012 from 1:30 pm to 4:30 pm

Location: Centre for Community Based Research
73 King Street W, Suite 300, Kitchener, ON

Please register for this workshop by May 15th. Call 519-741-1318 or email natalie@communitybasedresearch.ca.

Please forward any questions to Natalie Forde at the email address provided above.

Fee is $75 per person; however, support is available for people from small non-profits, people with low incomes, and students.

REFRESHMENTS & GOODIES PROVIDED!

